2019–2020 SEASON

MACBETH

OCTOBER 10 – DECEMBER 15, 2019

By William Shakespeare | Directed by John Doyle

A terrifyingly prophetic tale of revenge, murder, and madness, MACBETH ominously traces the fallout when the darkest side of humanity cheats its way into a position of power. Often referred to as “The Scottish Play” by superstitious theatergoers due to the purported witchcraft found within its text, MACBETH is one of Shakespeare’s bloodiest, scariest, and yet, most popular tragedies.

DRACULA AND FRANKENSTEIN

JANUARY – MARCH, 2020

Two New Adaptations Performing in Repertory
By Kate Hamill and Tarrance Arvelle Chisholm
Based on the novels by Bram Stoker and Mary Shelley

In winter of 2020, a thrilling new repertory cycle will bring to life two legendary Gothic nightmares, DRACULA and FRANKENSTEIN. Widely known as a pair of macabre fantasies about blood-sucking vampires and man-made monsters, these chilling stories more truly scratch at the fundamental human fears of love and betrayal, while exposing the even truer horrors of basic human nature.

ASSASSINS

APRIL – MAY, 2020

Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim | Book by John Weidman
From an Idea by Charles Gilbert, Jr. | Directed by John Doyle

A journey through the dark side of the American dream, Stephen Sondheim and John Weidman’s Tony-winning musical ASSASSINS explores the lives of nine men and women who either killed (or tried to kill) one of the Presidents of the United States. From John Wilkes Booth to Lee Harvey Oswald and beyond, the stories of our country’s most successful and would-be assassins intersect in unexpected ways, creating a powerful, yet unnervingly funny look at some of the most shocking moments in US history.

CLASSIC CONVERSATIONS

Throughout the 2019–2020 season, CSC will again offer our unique interview series, Classic Conversations, bringing you closer to some of the artists connected with CSC and our season. New York City’s leading actors, directors, and musicians sit down with CSC Artistic Director John Doyle in an intimate setting to discuss their theatrical careers and to perform the songs that have shaped their lives. Last season’s Classic Conversations offered unforgettable evenings with Raúl Esparza, Victoria Clark, and the entire company of The Cradle Will Rock. Further news about these exclusive events will be announced shortly and as a member you’ll receive priority access to purchase tickets.
